

Double-bag personal hygiene products in sealed plastic bags to prevent leaking or breaking.

Diapers and incontinence products can pose health and safety risks to waste collectors, staff and customers at disposal facilities, if not properly contained.

Starting July 2017, waste haulers bringing garbage loads to Metro Vancouver and City of Vancouver disposal facilities with significant quantities of improperly contained personal hygiene products may be levied an additional charge.

For more information, call 604-681-5600